SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of March 29, 2026

OPENING DISCUSSION | Let's Get the Discussion Started

- 1) Who/what, in your opinion, is overrated in our culture?

- 2) Michael talked about "attention is currency." What has captivated your attention lately?

BIBLICAL REFLECTION | What Does God Say About This?

- 1) Read John 4:4-42. What about this story and Michael's sermon really challenged your thinking?

What encouraged you?

- 2) In contrast to last week's reading about Nicodemus (John 3), what made Nicodemus so ineffective as a follower but made this Samaritan woman so influential?

- 3) Reread John 4:39. Michael said, "Changed people change people." Where have you seen that to be true in your life?

If you've been changed by God, what could keep you from offering that change to others?

- 4) Last week, our groups were encouraged to share who their "My One More" could be to invite to Easter and then prayed over them. Give updates to the group. What conversations were you able to have this past week?

PRACTICAL APPLICATION | Walking It Out

- 1) Think back to the second question, "What has captivated your attention lately?" What voices are you allowing to shape your mood, identity, view of God, or relationships right now? Which voices do you need to turn off this week? Which voices do you need to turn on this week?

- 2) Take the Challenge: On a card or piece of paper, write down one person you want to influence for Jesus and one specific step you could encourage that person to take toward Him.
